PANEL DISCUSSION AND Q & A WITH YOUNG MOVEMENT LEADERS

Moderator: Bre Holbert, Chico State Associated Students President

LEAH THOMAS is an intersectional environmental activist and eco-communicator who is passionate about advocating for and exploring the relationship between social justice and environmentalism. She uses her voice and platform as "Green Girl Leah" to encourage others to explore new places, live more sustainably and practice radical self-acceptance.

XIUHTEZCATL MARTINEZ is a 20-year-old indigenous climate activist, hip-hop artist, and powerful voice of a global youth-led environmental movement. He is an author, the Youth Director of the non-profit Earth Guardians, and co-founder of the company NOW that focuses on scaling climate change solutions. He is also a plaintiff in a youth-led lawsuit against the federal government for its failure to address climate change.
